

Criterion-On-Demand Feature Film Streaming

Criterion-On-Demand is Canada's premier feature film streaming service for educational institutions - bringing a collection of thousands of feature films to your classroom!

Offering a balanced library of titles including today's current hits, biopics, feature documentaries, literary adaptations, classic cinema and hard-to-find titles!

With feature films suitable for grades K-12 and Post-Secondary studies, Criterion-On-Demand is a perfect fit for any classroom.

Use feature films to supplement lessons - a perfect fit for:

- social studies & social justice
- film and media studies
- history studies
- English & French studies
- and much more!

- Unlimited access
- Entertainment & Fundraising rights **
- English & French language options (when available)
- English & French captioning (when available)
- Includes titles from well-known studios like:

...And more!

Criterion On-Demand Feature Film Collection

Your Criterion Subscription Includes:

Access to Criterion-On-Demand Streaming - stream thousands of feature film titles from major Studios. Most titles available with English & French language and caption options.

Entertainment Rights — Want to reward students with a movie night, or watch a film during a rained-out recess? Your Criterion On-Demand license includes entertainment/PPR rights for all 15,000+ titles in the Criterion Pictures catalogue. Some restrictions apply.

Fundraising Rights — Hold a Movie Night, charge admission and sell concessions to raise funds for school outings, projects and team sports! Some restrictions apply.

Pre-Release and Early Window Movies — Want to fundraise with a movie not even on home video yet? Criterion can supply access to feature films before they are available in the home-market.

Customizable - can't find the movie you need on Criterion-On-Demand? Criterion has rights to over 15,000 feature films and we're always taking requests to add to our streaming library.

What kind of content is available on Criterion-On-Demand?

Literary Adaptations - from Harry Potter to Lord of the Flies, Great Gatsby and more.

Feature Documentaries - non-fiction told in a big way!

Biopics - whether it's a King's Speech, Amadeus' final requiem or someone going Into The Wild - real people, real stories.

Academy Award Winners - the best of the best of American cinema.

Animated— from fare suitable for young learners, to more challenging content for film and animation students!

Classics — both black & white masterworks to modern classics, Casablanca to The Shawshank Redemption!

Foreign - from classic masters like Akira Kurosawa and Ingmar Bergman, to modern cinema from outside North America.

Why Criterion-On-Demand?

Easy Access— IP-authenticated access means your users can start watching without needing to remember passwords.

Easy Discovery — finding content is easy! Search the Criterion-On-Demand site, or import our MARC records or metadata into your existing library system.

Integration - already a subscriber to Learn360, Curriculum Video On-Demand or World Cinema? Add the Criterion-On-Demand collection to these platforms easily - one login, multiple amazing content collections.

Always Growing - new titles are added to Criterion-On-Demand regularly, or request titles be added!

Request a Free Trial today!
sales@critterionpic.com

Feature only available for K-12 Schools