FAMILY PACK - NMG0095

A Picture Book on DVD (Iconographic): by Sandra Markle, illustrated by Alan Marks. Based on actual events that occurred during the reintroduction of 14 Canadian wolves to Yellowstone National Park in 1995, this story recounts the experiences of a young female wolf who struggles to survive alone in the park's 2.2 million acre wilderness. Gradually, she learns how to hunt on her own and adapts to her new home. After a harsh winter without her pack, the story ends happily for Female Wolf 7 when she finds a mate, and they and their cubs form a new family pack. The program includes an Author's Note with information about the Canadian wolves in Yellowstone and Gray Wolves Are Amazing with fascinating facts about wolves. Includes a Conversation with the Author.

THE GREAT RACE - NMG0096

A Picture Book on DVD (Iconographic): written and illustrated by Kevin O'Malley. Tired of listening to Lever Lapin boast about being the fastest runner in the world, Nate Tortoise mumbles that he "could probably beat" the conceited hare in a race. No sooner are the words out of Nate's mouth, then the great hare himself accepts the challenge. On the day of the race the over-confident Lever stops to give autographs, kiss the ladies and generally show off while Nate plugs away toward the finish line. This comic tongue-in-cheek retelling of "The Tortoise and the Hare" finishes with an amusing twist on the time-honored moral: "Better Nate Than Lever!" Includes a Conversation with the Author.

YUCKY WORMS - NMG0098

A Picture Book on DVD (Iconographic): by Vivian French, illustrated by Jessica Ahlberg. "Yucky!" says a young boy about the worms his grandmother digs up in her garden. But he soon changes his mind when he discovers how interesting worms really are - and how important they are in helping the soil, plants and animals in the garden. This lighthearted study is enhanced with appealing artwork and the witty comments of the many worms who live in Grandma's garden. Extra features include, Wormy Facts and How To Be A Wormologist that provide more information about worms and garden experiments children can try on their own. Includes a Conversation with the Author.

DON'T SLAM THE DOOR! - NMG0101

A Picture Book on DVD (Iconographic): by Dori Chaconas, illustrated by Will Hillenbrand. A slamming door may not seem like a big deal, but in this hilarious story of cause and effect, it can have far reaching consequences, including a limping Pa, a bee-stung bear, and a house plunged into chaos! In lively rhyme that's perfect for reading aloud - illustrated with cozy, homespun artwork by Will Hillenbrand, Dori Chaconas relates a humorous tale of a pint-size narrator who tries valiantly to warn her family of the increasingly outrageous effects of their actions. Includes a Conversation with the Author.

WHITE WATER - NMG0102

A Picture Book on DVD (Iconographic): by Michael Bandy and Eric Stein, illustrated by Shadra Strickland. Based on the childhood experiences of Michael Bandy, this inspiring story written with Eric Stein is set in the South at the dawn of the civil rights movement when everyone still drank from "White" and "Colored" water fountains. Includes a Conversation with the Author.

Each DVD includes a Study Guide (on the reverse side of the cover art).
