Guidance & Sex Education

THE DECISION - CLASSROOM DVD

Teens talking about their attitudes and concerns about having sex for the first time.

Every 10 minutes a teen girl gets pregnant.

Around the world, every minute 10 people are infected with HIV.

At least half of them are under the age of 25.

There are many choices to make in life. This teaching resource video explores how teens are dealing with some of the most difficult ones. This video will help students start to discuss the decisions involved in having sex for the first time. Discussion questions for instructor included. Fast paced with quick interview clips. Music by DJ Jelo.

I CAN WAIT DVD

"I Can Wait" is an educational drama for youth about postponing sexual involvement. It was written, directed and edited by Catherine Bussiere, and produced by the Sexual Health Centre for Cumberland County with funding from the Cumberland County Community Health Boards Wellness Fund. Youth were involved in all aspects of this project.

"I Can Wait" Story line:

Olivia, a young teen, is having the worst night of her life. She just found out that her boyfriend is seeing someone else. Olivia thinks back over their relationship and conversations with friends, wondering if its because she said "no" to sex. After talking with her older brother, Olivia realizes she's made the right choice for her.

This thought-provoking, educational film highlights the pressures to have sex and the value of waiting. It can be used by individuals, counselors, teachers, youth group leaders, etc.

COMING TO TERMS DVD

Alone in his college dorm room, a young man struggles with his family's reaction when he is pressured into coming out to them over the telephone. Damian sinks into depression as he realizes that both he and his family have an arduous journey ahead if they are to heal old wounds and accept his sexuality.

Coming to Terms demonstrates how denial and blame can damage relationships and is an excellent video for youth, counselors and families.
