

WORDS THAT COOK!

- Parenting with Children's Books Series -

Helping parents, children, educators and community organizations bring literacy to life!

Professionals, experts, parents and children model and discuss enjoyable and practical techniques for enriching literacy experiences. Designed for educators and childcare providers (including parents) of children ages 0-12, each DVD in the Words That Cook! series includes an original 30-minute episode, comprised of five or six related segments, plus bonus content material and messages from the executive producers. Each show gives educators and childcare providers the creative tools to make literacy a fun part of everyday life! Words That Cook! is supported by the International Reading Association and has aired on participating PBS stations as well as on cable access stations nationwide.

Winner of an International Reading Association Broadcast Media Award for Television

"Words That Cook! offers a goldmine of creative ideas to promote family literacy... recommended for parents... looking for ways to enhance their children's literacy skills and promote reading."
